UNION SQUARE HOSPITALITY GROUP AND THE WHITNEY PRESENT SANDWICHED: NEW “POP-UP” CAFE FEATURING CREATIONS FROM USHG’S RENOWNED CHEFS

CAFÉ DESIGNED BY ARTIST JEFFREY INABA, AS PART OF 2010, THE WHITNEY BIENNIAL

NEW YORK, February 23, 2010 – Danny Meyer’s Union Square Hospitality Group (USHG) is pleased to introduce Sandwiched, its new temporary “pop-up” cafe at the Whitney Museum of American Art featuring sandwich creations from USHG’s celebrated chefs. Opening on Thursday, February 25th in tandem with 2010, the Whitney Biennial, Sandwiched is a temporary cafe serving visitors while the permanent dining space on the lower level of the museum (set to open in fall 2010) is being renovated.

As part of the Biennial, the Whitney commissioned Jeffrey Inaba’s architecture collective INABA and C-Lab to design the space. “The main inspiration for Sandwiched was the Breuer building, and the idea that postwar modern architecture, however bold in form or expressive in materials, is vulnerable to feeling institutional,” explained Jeffrey Inaba. “Our intention was to respond to the delicate state that modern architecture can find itself in with a palette of contemporary, synthetic materials – the installation is made of fiberglass, nylon and plexiglass lanterns, a resin service counter, plexiglass table tops and vinyl seat covers – in order to be more ‘human’ and hospitable to the touch.”

Created and operated by Hudson Yards, the events and catering business from Danny Meyer’s USHG, Sandwiched offers sandwich selections from the renowned chefs of USHG, as well as beverages, snacks and dessert sandwiches from some of USHG’s talented pastry chefs. These sandwiches were commissioned specifically for the “pop-up” cafe, and are available at the Whitney only, for a limited time during this installation:

- Union Square Cafe Cured Salmon, Chef Carmen Quagliata
- Gramercy Tavern Heritage Ham & Sharp Cheddar, Chef Michael Anthony
- Tabla Bombay Pita Panino, Chef Floyd Cardoz
- Eleven Madison Park Chicken Schnitzel, Chef Daniel Humm
- Blue Smoke Applewood-Smoked Turkey & Gouda, Chef Kenny Callaghan
- Hudson Yards Knoll Crest Egg or Line-Caught Albacore Tuna, Chef Robb Garceau
- Hudson Yards Lemon Whoopie Pie or S’More, Pastry Chef Sunchar Raymond
- Gramercy Tavern Chocolate Mint Patty Brownie, Pastry Chef Nancy Olson
- Blue Smoke Fluffer Nutter, Pastry Chef Jennifer Giblin
- Hudson Yards Baked Eggs or Pancakes with Fruit Compote (Weekends Only)
“As art lovers we are incredibly excited to partner with the Whitney to help establish the museum as a premier venue for catered events. And we consider it an enormous privilege to conceive the next generation cafe to serve the Whitney’s museum goers as well as their Upper East Side neighbors,” said Danny Meyer, CEO, Union Square Hospitality Group. “We’re eager to contribute one more reason for people to visit this institution of American art.”

Following the renovation, the Whitney and Union Square Hospitality Group will unveil a new cafe in the fall of 2010. In addition to operating Sandwiched, Hudson Yards serves as the exclusive caterer for all Whitney events. Hudson Yards has earned acclaim as an innovative hospitality leader for its role in creating and operating USHG’s culinary offerings at The New York Mets’ Citi Field, and also for Public Fare, its open-air cafe at the Public Theater at The Delacorte in Central Park.

About the Whitney

The Whitney Museum of American Art is the leading advocate of 20th- and 21st-century American art. Founded in 1930, the Museum is regarded as the preeminent collection of American art and includes major works and materials from the estate of Edward Hopper, the largest public collection of works by Alexander Calder, as well as significant works by Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Agnes Martin, Bruce Nauman, Georgia O’Keeffe, Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen, Kiki Smith, and Andy Warhol, among other artists. With its history of exhibiting the most promising and influential American artists and provoking intense critical and public debate, the Whitney’s signature show, the Biennial, has become the most important survey of the state of contemporary art in America today. First housed on West 8th Street, the Whitney relocated in 1954 to West 54th Street and in 1966 inaugurated its present home at 945 Madison Avenue, designed by Marcel Breuer. The Whitney is currently moving ahead with plans to build a second facility, designed by Renzo Piano, located in downtown New York at the entrance to the High Line in the Meatpacking District.
